ARTICLE II—OBJECT

The object of this society shall be mutual benefit in case of death, as hereinafter stated.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

1. Any minister of Miami Annual Conference may become a member of this society by a vote of the society, and paying to the secretary one dollar entrance fee, which binds him to pay two dollars for the benefit of the heirs of each and every member on his death; the said two dollars to be paid to the secretary of this society within thirty days after date of the notice of the death of the member.
2. The wife of any member of the conference, and any deaconess serving within the bounds of the conference may become a member of this society, with the same privileges and advantages and upon the same conditions as ministers.
3. Each member shall pay one dollar annually to the secretary of the society, said sum to be paid at the annual session of the conference. The secretary shall give notice to all members of the time when payment shall become due.
4. All members having paid into the Beneficiary Fund the sum equal to the death benefit allowed each member shall be relieved of further payment of the beneficiary assessments.

ARTICLE IV—BENEFITS

The amount of two hundred dollars shall be paid on the death of any member of the society, to his wife, or her husband, or if none, then to his or her children, and if neither, then to his estate.

ARTICLE V—OFFICERS

The officers of this society shall be a president, vice-president, a secretary and a treasurer, all of whom shall be members of the annual conference.

In the event of the death or resignation of any officer of this society, the other officers are empowered to fill the vacancy until the next annual meeting.

1. The president shall preside at all the meetings of the society, and shall sign all orders for money to be paid out by the treasurer, and in case of death, resignation, or absence of the president, the vice-president shall perform his duties.
2. The secretary shall keep a record account of all the transactions and take charge of all the papers and books of the society. Within ten days after the death of a member he shall notify all surviving members of the date of the death, of such member, and also the date on which the obligation of such must be met, and shall countersign all orders for money to be paid out by the treasurer. He shall also see that each member is provided with a proper certificate of membership, and the amount of benefit due his heirs at his death, and sign said certificate himself and secure the signature of the president to the same.
3. The treasurer shall keep safely all money belonging to the society and shall disburse the same only on the order of the president, countersigned by the secretary. Within thirty days after the death of a member, on the order of the president, countersigned by the secretary, he shall pay to the heirs of such deceased member the amount of the benefit, two hundred dollars, herein prescribed. He shall give receipts for all moneys received and take vouchers for all disbursed. He shall make a full report of all moneys received and disbursed to the regular meeting of the society at each annual Conference session.

ARTICLE VI

Transfer to another Conference of the United Brethren in Christ shall not forfeit membership; but any member who has been expelled, or has withdrawn from the conference without its consent, forfeits his membership. Any person failing to pay the two dollars agreed upon within thirty days after the date of the notice of the death of a member, or his annual dues, as herein provided for, shall from that time cease to be a member and shall have no claim upon any benefits of the society, and shall not be reinstated until all omitted obligations are paid in full.

ARTICLE VII—MEETINGS

A regular meeting of the society shall be held annually during the session of the conference at the call of the president. At such annual meeting the officers of the society shall be elected, by ballot, and such other business transacted as may be in accordance with the object sought by the society. A majority of the members other than honorary, shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII—ADDITIONAL NOTICE

All members who may not have paid within thirty days from the date of notice of the death of a member the agreed upon two dollars, shall be again notified by the secretary, of the time when the thirty days in which payment was to have been made expired, and shall be allowed ten days additional in which to pay the same; any member failing in this, his membership is forfeited.

ARTICLE IX—OMISSION OF ASSESSMENTS

When more than two deaths occur in one year, and there is a balance in the treasury of more than $800.00 no Mortality Assessment will be levied.

Germantown on the 125th anniversary of the founding of this old church.

On motion of Rev. F. W. May, Miss Mary Elizabeth Holcomb was received into membership in the conference by vote of the ministers.

The recording secretary was instructed to cast the unanimous ballot of the conference for W. H. Cassel and H. D. Conger as trustees for one year, as members of the proposed Bishop's Manse for the Central Area. The ballot was cast and they were declared elected.

Rev. J. P. Hendrix spoke of his appreciation of the members of the conference during the days they have been his guests.

Superintendent W. T. Frank, D.D., and statistical secretary, Rev. C. W. Snyder, made announcements.

It was voted that the journal of Saturday's proceedings be approved without reading. Rev. W. M. VanSickle was accorded the privilege of making a personal statement as he voluntarily retires from the active ministry after forty years' service in the pastorate, and twenty-four years as recording secretary in the Miami Conference. This being the fifty-second anniversary of his admission into the ministry.

Rev. J. A. Pantle also made a personal statement. He united with the conference August 31, 1892, and is retiring from the active ministry because of failing eyesight. October 20, Reverend and Mrs. Pantle will observe their fiftieth anniversary of their marriage, in the Darke County fair grounds. He closed by reciting a poem of his own composition, entitled "Ohio," and was applauded.

Bishop Clippinger spoke briefly in reference to those who have been active in past years, who are now retiring; closing with "God Bless You."

Rev. E. J. Moore, State Anti-Saloon League superintendent, was introduced and spoke on Law Enforcement in an optimistic helpful manner. The Bishop closed with prayer.

REPORTS

MEMOIRS

God is not the God of the dead; He is the God of the living. Within the past year the Death Angel "on swift but gentle wing," wafted some of our coworkers from us to occupy mansions prepared for them by the Friend and Savior, Jesus Christ. Among Mr. Moody's last words to his friends were these: "Earth recedes; Heaven opens before me. If this is death, it is sweet. There is no valley here. God is calling and I must go." Seven of us have gone at the call of our Master; Mrs. J. P. Landis, Mrs. W. M. VanSickle, Mrs. W. K. Albright, Mrs. J. W. Kilbourne, Reverend J. W. Flory, Reverend A. Kissel, and Reverend W. H. Klinefelter.

In memory of "those women who labored" with their life partners in tasks and duties often outside the province of the pastor, we meet to give honor. Many alabaster boxes were broken by them to cheer the burdened pastor as he went to face the problems of life. The departed ministers have fought a good fight and kept and promulgated the faith. They deserve more extended mention than the limitations of this report can give. They are our "living epistles" read and known and loved by us all. Our words are weak and futile in expressing our esteem and friendship for the departed.

Mrs. Addie B. Landis, beloved wife of Dr. J. P. Landis, was born at Lewisburg, Ohio, February 8, 1855. She was the daughter of Jesse B. Kumler, granddaughter of Bishop Henry Kumler, Jr., and the great granddaughter of Bishop Henry Kumler, Sr. For over fifty-seven years she was associated with Doctor Landis in his active work in the pastorate and seminary. With wonderful words of faith and hope she took her departure in peace.

Mrs. Mary A. Kilbourne, wife of the late Reverend J. W. Kilbourne, was taken to her heavenly home November 21, 1928, to join the one whom for fifty years she so nobly and faithfuly assisted, and we hold her in living memory until we, too, hear our call.

Mrs. Clara B. VanSickle, beloved wife of Reverend W. M. VanSickle, was called to a higher sphere of life the twenty-third day of December, 1928. Arcanum was the scene of her early life and with energy and persistence she cared for a widowed mother and conducted a successful business. In 1900 she entered the life of Reverend VanSickle and very ably supplemented his work in the various departments of church work. For more than twenty-five years she was Junior and Intermediate Christian Endeavor superintendent in every church where her husband served as pastor. "She hath done a good work" and rests in peace leaving a host of friends.

Mrs. Nancy Clark Albright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clark, was born near Arcanum, Ohio, July 3, 1845, and died in Greenville, Ohio, March 29, aged eighty-three years seven months and twenty-four days. She married Rev. W. K. Albright in 1870 and served with him for twenty-three years in the Miami Conference. Mrs. Albright was one of the organizers of the Women's Missionary Association in the Greenville church, and was one of the Golden Jubilee members of the National Women's Missionary Association. Through life and faith she had grown a strong and patient Christ-like spirit.

Reverend Alfred Kissel was born in Greenville, Ohio, August 1, 1856; he died at his home near Horatio, Ohio, March 8, aged seventy-two years seven months and seven days. Reverend Kissel early became active and earnest in evangelistic work and was a local preacher in the Methodist Church for three years. In 1892 he was granted quarterly conference license in the United Brethren Church. For nearly forty years he served various charges in Ohio and Indiana, and his ministry was marked by evangelistic earnestness and success. There are left to mourn his going: his wife, three daughters, one son, fourteen grandchildren and eight great grandchildren, three brothers, one sister, and many other relatives and multitudes of friends.

Reverend John W. Flory was born and reared near Clayton, Ohio. In 1886 he graduated from Bonebrake Seminary. For thirty years he served pastorates in Miami Conference. He held some great revivals during which whole communities were stirred religiously. He possessed a fine social nature and as a result he was a successful pastor. His many friends feel most keenly the loss of this capable preacher but rejoice that men and the Church had such a faithful friend as he.

Dr. William Henry Klinefelter was born May 4, 1850, in Morrow County, Ohio. In 1879 he graduated from Western College receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts. In 1882 he obtained the degree of Master of Arts from the same college. During his college work he had carried out the prescribed reading courses for licentiates, and in September, 1877 was ordained. In 1883 he accepted the chair of Natural Science in the San Joaquin Valley College in California. This college conferred on him the honorary title of Doctor of Divinity. Later he became president of Westfield College, Illinois, and after six years of work there, he joined the Miami Conference and served in various pastorates and also served as presiding elder of the conference. Doctor Klinefelter was the embodiment of Christian culture and courtesy. He kept his poise and fine spirit increasingly to the very end of his life. His example of a symmetrically developed Christian minister is a worthy one for us all.

The departure of these friends has left many broken hearts, saddened homes, disrupted plans, which by God's grace, will become the basis and source of blessings to those we mourn and a manifestation of the infinite wealth of God's wisdom and grace to us all.

Whereas in these departed friends we recognize the honor reflected on this conference by their loyalty and devotion:

Therefore: be it resolved:

That we the members of Miami Conference in session are deeply sensible of the great loss sustained in the death of our friends.

That we extend to the bereaved our condolence in this time of loss and deep sorrow.

That we be encouraged by these noble examples of Christian love and devotions.

Respectfully,

CALVIN MCNELLY, Committee.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT

Dear Coworkers:

With gratitude to Almighty God, and with appreciation of the kindness, courtesy, and cooperation of pastors and people throughout the conference I submit my third annual report as superintendent of the Miami Conference. It is understood that such a report must of necessity be unsatisfactory. The deepest and most vital ministries of our churches may go unnoticed, either from lack of information or of ability to portray them. Before we proceed further with this report, let us pause again in memory of our fallen comrades.

In Memoriam

During the year the Reaper has been busy. Seven have been cut down: Mrs. J. W. Kilbourne; Mrs. J. P. Landis, Mrs. W. K. Albright; Mrs. W. M. VanSickle; Rev. J. W. Flory; Rev. A. Kissel; and Rev. W. H. Klinefelter, D.D. All the homes of our active pastors have been kept intact during the year. We are grateful that it has been so. Suitable memorial services already have been held in honor of those who have outstripped us in the race.

Resignations and Appointments

Four student charges were left to be supplied, when we adjourned one year ago. These were filled promptly, as follows: Beardshear and Zion, Rev. C. C. Fruth; Harrison and Rockdale, Rev. M. H. Welty; Greenbush and Brown's Run, Rev. J. N. Boyer. Later, Brother Fruth resigned Zion in order to give more time to Beardshear. Rev. W. P. Channon has finished the year at Zion. Rev. Ralph Tinsley resigned the Springboro-Oregonia charge in September, and Rev. Wade Miller was appointed. Rev. C. D. Wright resigned the Lockington circuit in order to take work in the Sandusky Conference, where he could finish his college work. Rev. Elmer Smith will bring the report from this charge. Rev. Robert Parsons resigned Maple Park in order to go to Africa as a missionary. Rev. J. B. Henry will bring the report. Dr. G. D. Batdorf vacated the pulpit of First Church without complying with the disciplinary requirement of a thirty days notice to the conference superintendent. Miami conference is honored in his selection to the office of bishop, and we believe that he will discharge his obligations with credit to himself and to the cause of Christ.

The Building Program

The year has recorded increased activity in building enterprises. Before conference one year ago, Hartford Street began to remodel their church building. They have provided a complete basement, new flooring, interior and exterior decorating, and many other improvements at a cost of nearly twenty-two thousand dollars.

Oakwood has moved rapidly this year. On April 28 the conference superintendent was in charge of ground-breaking services. On June 23 Bishop A. R. Clippinger laid the corner stone with appropriate services. Now the imposing structure is ready for the plasterers. It will be completed by November 1.

High Street has invested nearly $3000.00 in beautifying their building.

Drexel Park has wrought a miracle, also. A complete basement, three additional Sunday-school rooms, a tower and bell, oak pews, papering, and a brick veneer surface combine to give Drexel an ideal plant for about $17,000.00. A debt of about $8,000.00 remains. The superintendent laid the corner stone December 16. Bishop Clippinger dedicated the building July 21.

Verona completed their remodeling at a cost of about $5,000.00. Re-opening services were conducted on October 14, at which time sufficient money was pledged to complete payment of the debt.

Our church building at New Hope, west of Eaton, was destroyed by fire on Good Friday. The new church building is rising upon the old foundation. Much of the work is being donated. It is expected that the building will be ready within a few weeks.

North Bend purchased a parsonage early in the year. It was dedicated by Bishop Clippinger October 21. It represents a valuation of about $6,500.00.

Newport now is building a six-room brick house. It will cost about $6,500.00. The lot already was in the possession of the church.

Fairview has accepted the plans for their proposed building, but has decided to delay actual building until more cash is in hand. The congregation is paying into the fund at the rate of nearly a thousand dollars a month.

Phillipsburg has let the contract for numerous changes in their plant, including the addition of a large room for Sunday School and social purposes. The cost will approximate $10,000.00.

Cowden Memorial and First Church, Dayton, desire to merge and propose to build a new temple of worship on Salem avenue. Each church has voted separately—both in official board session and congregational meeting—with almost unanimous vote in favor of the merger. Later, the two quarterly conferences ratified the previous actions of the respective churches. The quarterly conferences, in joint session July 3, voted to petition this annual conference to take the steps necessary to complete the merger of these churches. The lay delegates from these churches will bring the request before the proper committee.

Abandoned Property

During the year the abandoned Fairview church building in Darke County was sold for fifty dollars. The Bunker Hill and Kirkwood buildings were donated to the Lockington church, in harmony with their request. They have sold the Kirkwood building and have used the proceeds in needed repairs to the Lockington building.

The Twin Chapel building remains unsold because of a reverting clause in the deed. Notwithstanding the fact that the deed shows that the plot of ground was purchased for fifty dollars before the Civil War, surely a good price for an acre of ground in that day, the reverting clause was inserted. This should be a warning to pastors and officials to refuse to purchase property on such a basis. However, there still is a splendid hot air furnace in the building, which may be sold. I hope some church in the conference can use it at the low price for which it can be bought.

Otwell and Utica churches have not been sold.

Special Days

Many of the churches have observed special days with financial efforts. In addition to those mentioned in connection with recent building programs, recognition should be given to Xenia, which congregation raised $1,500.00 on debt; Cherry Grove raised $1,175.00, cash, to complete the liquidation of their church debt; Beavertown cleared their parsonage of debt; Carrmonte secured subscriptions sufficient to cover the debt on their parsonage, same to be paid out in two years; Willey Memorial congregation installed a new Moller organ at a cost of $3,500.00, of which $2,000.00 has been paid; Clayton burnt the mortgage on their church, raising $1,300.00 cash; Mount Healthy burnt the mortgage on their church building and proceeded at once to lay plans to build a new parsonage; Hamilton raised nearly $1,500.00 to free their parsonage property of debt; Beardshear subscribed over $2,000.00 to be paid within a year; Belmont subscribed more than $3,000.00 toward their building fund, same to be paid within a year; Fort McKinley raised nearly $700.00 to liquidate their parsonage indebtedness. No doubt other achievements have been made which have escaped my notice. Numerous furnaces have been installed, and it is evident that our people expect warmer services next winter.

Licenses Granted

The list of quarterly conference ministers has been increased to include Edward Niswander, Euclid Avenue Church; Walter Gaebel, Mount Airy; William K. Messmer, Jr.; Newport; Lawrence McLean, Oak Street; and Bryan Greene, Otterbein Chapel. Some of the other mentioned in our conference minutes have stood in this relation for several years. I recommend that pastors of these young people endeavor to assist them in laying plans to complete their training as speedily as possible.

The list of Lay Ministers has been increased by the addition of A. F. Powell of Harshman.

Two new names are added to the list of deaconesses, namely; Mrs. H. P. Snapp, Lewton; and Mrs. Gertha Beetley.

Robert Wellbaum and Robert Copeland have been recommended by the Drexel and Xenia quarterly conferences, respectively, for membership in this body. It gives me great pleasure to recommend them without qualification. Both are attending college, having completed the freshman year.

Conference Relations

Rev. B. C. Eutsler requests transfer to the Colorado Conference.

Rev. O. F. Bilger requests a transfer to the Michigan Conference. Rev. W. B. Arthur requests transfer to the Missouri Conference. Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Wright request transfers to the Sandusky Conference. Brethren desiring to enter the Miami Conference will appear before the same committee. To date Revs. O. L. Barngrover and W. L. Kuhen from the S. E. Ohio Conference, and Rev. W. E. Ward from the Sandusky Conference, have indicated their desire to meet the committee.

Rev. James A. Robinson requests to be recommended to the Bureau of Evangelism for the proper credentials.

Membership

During the three years that I have served as superintendent there has been evidence of dissatisfaction with the membership rolls of numerous churches. It has required considerable persuasion to keep many boards from drastic action. Upon the basis of the reports from about three-fourths of the charges, I estimate a loss in members this year of five hundred, or more.

Revivals this year have been few and far between. In this connection I must report great unrest in many churches. We may blame this condition to the spirit of the times. Even if it is due to the spirit of the times, the Church of Christ has access to the power which is sufficient to change the spirit of the times.

All who believe this assertion, immediately are driven to a reconsideration of our connections with that inexhaustible power house. A candid confession reveals the appalling fact that spiritual life among us, from the standpoint of experience and of expression, is on too low a level. We are prone to comfort ourselves in the midst of our defeats and undertone victories by taking refuge behind the "spirit of the times."

When will the Church of Christ present to her Lord and Master an unchoked channel of service? Certainly not until her ministers, Elijah like, pray for rain—and pray with such faith that they send their associates, once and again, to the hill tops to report the first signs, and the progress of the coming deluge! Furthermore, brethren and sisters of the laity: will you not join in a movement to restore family altars, that vital godliness may characterize every one of our homes?

Special Offerings

Miami Conference again has proved its interest in our general institutions. While falling far below our record offering of last year to the Otterbein Home, we still lead the conferences in cooperating territory. The Cash Day offering to the Bonebrake Seminary will be about the same as a year ago. The conference treasurer will give the figures for these items.

The Ministerial Relief offering ran somewhat above one thousand dollars. About twenty-five churches failed to lift this offering.

Literature

I am glad to include in this report, an exhortation to pastors and people. The Religious Telescope is indispensable to any man, or woman, who would be informed as to the denominational program. Without such information it will be impossible to move promptly and vigorously with the church at large.

Also, the Miami Messenger is worthy of highest praise. It fills a place within our conference as a newspaper and a medium for religious propaganda.

The Watchword and other literature for Sunday-school and Christian Endeavor uses have reached a high standard of excellence. It will be a good tonic, as well as a source of missionary information, to read the Evangel.

Conference Finances

The year just closing has witnessed greater financial difficulties as obstacles to church programs than either preceding year of my term of office. There have been exceptions, of course. The three years have been lean years, from the standpoint of industry and husbandry within the bounds of our conference. Rural communities sustained the onslaught, which more recently has passed on to the urban communities; until now, all are more or less affected.

Benevolence payments this year have been trailing those of last year. It will be necessary to await the final report of the treasurer to know the exact situation.

You have heard in district meetings and conferences that our conference is carrying a heavy debt. We have been trying to lift benevolence contributions above previous figures both for the sake of the general causes and for the sake of enlarging the conference receipts from this source. Yet, with all our efforts, from the bishop, conference superintendent, district leaders, pastors, to the last consecrated layman, we have only succeeded in maintaining our previous standing. What is to be done?

Our boundary and finance committee is made up of the persons who have struggled with this problem for several years. This committee will suggest possible economies and call us to sacrificial living and giving next conference year.

We have this to encourage us; the recent general conference authorized us to retain 43% of what we raise to be used to promote the work within our conference. This is a gain of five percent, or about $2,200.00 per year, on the basis of past giving. Let us capitalize this action as much as possible.

Elders' Orders

Rev. Emerson D. Bragg and Rev. Roy D. Miller, graduates of Otterbein College and of Bonebrake Seminary, are ready to appear before the proper committee. Also, Rev. J. B. Henry, graduate of Otterbein College, and with a partial course in Bonebrake Seminary, is ready to go before the same committee, subject to final report from the fourth year study course committee.

These young men are worthy and are well trained. I recommend them to the committee and to any parishes they may be called to serve.

Personal Services

During the year I have given seven weeks to evangelistic work among the smaller churches. This has been a joy to me, and, I trust, of some help to the churches.

I have conducted two, or more, quarterly conferences on every charge in the conference, with one or two exceptions.

I have preached morning and evening on practically every Sunday of the year. My preaching schedule has been made out with a view to touching the smaller churches.

In financial efforts I have assisted churches in raising nearly $9,000.00 this year. During the three years the total for this item will exceed $27,000.00.

I have driven annually in the service of the conference approximately 15,000 miles. The drain on nerve energy has been considerable. The privileges and opportunities for service have been appreciated.

I have endeavored to be faithful to the trust imposed in me. I have not satisfied all the demands in the office either in your judgment, or in my own. Some of you will recall how reluctantly I relinquished a happy pastoral relationship to take up this work. I am reconciled to the loss of three years from the pastorate, and to the loss of hours and days of contact with my family, only when I remember that "all things work together for good to them that love God."

Permit me to express my deep appreciation for the fellowship of the ministers of this great conference. Here we have a genuine fraternity. Choice spirits are passing beyond year by year; but choice spirits are crowding upon the pathway.

Finally: I am unable to express to Bishop A. R. Clippinger what I find in my heart today with reference to his generous help during the years. For seven years I was his pastor. During two years of that time he was my superintendent, and more recently, my bishop. He never has failed me. There never has been a serious difference of opinion between us, so far as I know. Miami Conference is happy and favored in his return for another quadrennium. Very sincerely yours,

FRED L. DENNIS, Superintendent.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

We recognize the great importance of Christian Education in the development of Christian life and character and in building the church and the Christian social order; and we purpose faithfully to organize and work for the teaching and training of children and adults in righteous and religious living.

We heartily approve the action of the General Conference in uniting boards in the field of Christian Education, and pledge our loyalty to the plan and program and executive secretary of the new board. We also approve of the new plan of organization of the Miami Conference Christian Education Union and pledge our loyalty to this organization. We purpose to show this loyalty by prompt payment of dues, faithful sending of reports, having delegations at the Annual Convention and by seeking to carry out the program set for the individual church and school.

We recognize the important service of the Sunday school in the field of Christian Education, and in order that this service may be of the greatest possible value, we recommend:

1. A fully organized and adequately equipped Sunday school in every church.
2. A Cradle Roll and Home Department in every school.
3. A monthly meeting of the Sunday School Board with program and business session.
4. A Teacher Training Class or students in such a class or school.
5. Separate worship service by divisions wherever possible.
6. Use of Graded Lessons to include at least the Intermediate Age.
7. A well-planned Fall Rally Campaign.
8. A continuous systematic follow up of absentees.
9. A thorough evangelistic effort to reach every member of the school for acceptance and public confession of Christ.

10. Some effort for the training of parents in the service of Christian parenthood.
11. Some plan for social and recreational life.
12. The circulating and reading of books of value in Religious Education.
13. Cooperation in community enterprises in Religious Education, and in the work of the International Council of Religious Education.

We recognize the value of expression as a means of Christian Education, and urge that organized effort be made to give everyone opportunity for this expression.

We recognize and commend the work of the Women's Missionary Association and Otterbein Guild in this field.

We recognize the valuable contribution of the Christian Endeavor in furnishing such opportunity and recommend:

1. That Senior, Intermediate, and Junior C. E. be maintained wherever practicable.
2. That effort be made so to change the plan of C. E. organization as to include a larger group.
3. That all C. E. societies procure and use the new C. E. Standard as a guide in their work.
4. That they cooperate in the Special Class study program as outlined by the Young People's Department.
5. That a Young People's Director strive to correlate the activities of young people in each church.
6. That Anniversary Day he observed.

We believe that the whole Church should be reached with some Educational work outside of the regular Sunday school session and recommend—

1. Church Night Study Classes.
2. A monthly Brotherhood Meeting with program of study and expression.
3. That Organized Adult Classes put some feature of educational value in their Business and Social Meetings.
4. That classes be conducted for children in Christian Living.

We recommend that each local church elect a Board of Education as provided in the new Discipline and that this board with its directors endeavor to develop a coordinated program for the educational agencies of the church.

OTTERBEIN COLLEGE

Otterbein College has been ordained of God to minister, in a Christian way, to the young people in this section of our beloved Zion. She has tried, by the cooperation of her friends and by the help of God, to develop the full man. The curriculum of Otterbein is so arranged that no man need leave its walls without having had an opportunity to develop, intellectually, socially, physically, and spiritually. She is a fully accredited school, "and has from time to time received recognition from the various standardizing agencies throughout America."

A complete program of physical education has been planned, and with the completion of the new gymnasium and the remodeling of the old one we will be doing a splendid piece of work, equaling the work of any college in the state or nation.

Otterbein has many agencies for the development of the social and religious life of her student body. Aside from the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., she has her daily Chapel services, a "Life Work Recruit" organization and a splendid, wide awake, up-to-date church. During the past year there were sixty-two young people who were planning to enter some form of full time Christian service.

We recommend that the Home, the Sunday School and the Church become agencies in creating a passion for Christian Education, and that one Sunday in the year be given to the study of this subject, in relation to our own church and college.

We recommend that our people, when deemed advisable, make every honorable effort to place a proportionate number of Otterbein graduates in our public schools.

We further recommend and urge that our pastors and churches do their utmost in turning our young people to a college that believes in the development of the full man. And that that college is none other than "dear old Otterbein."

BONEBRAKE SEMINARY

The importance of the Seminary in the work of the Church and in our civilization is everywhere recognized. No minister can be ordained in the United Brethren Church without a theological course of study. He must take that course either in the Seminary or in the conference course of study. In either case the minister is indebted to the Seminary for his training.

Bonebrake Seminary stands today in the first rank of theological schools in its course of study, location, buildings, and faculty. The debt was incurred in securing such an institution. It is worth while. Who would exchange it with the debt, for the old seminary located on West First Street? No one should think of this debt as a burden. We are grateful for the vision and toil of those that made possible our present Seminary. The past quadrennium witnessed a marked advance and since January 1, 1929, the sum of more than $50,000.00 has been paid on the principal of the debt, thus reducing the interest charge more than $3000.00 per year.

"The General Conference recommended that the bishops, conference superintendents, pastors, group leaders, and laymen be called upon to cooperate in the fullest measure with the president of the Seminary to complete the campaign within the prescribed time, and that if necessary the time be extended to July 1, 1930, and that any emergency arising thereafter be in the hands of the Board of Administration."

In response to this urgent appeal, and to show our high esteem for the Seminary in its great work in Kingdom extension, be it resolved as a conference:

First—That while we recognize that there are other interests both local and general that must be considered, we pledge ourselves to do our utmost to secure the payment of the quotas as outlined by the General Conference.

Second—That we make such correction an organization in the conference districts and local churches, as may seem wise to the conference officials and Seminary management, to assist in carrying the message through the Council if Administration, district groups, or local church rallies, to the entire constituency.

Third—That we urge every pastor and every layman to cooperate heartily with the Seminary in securing the immediate payment of all quotas and pledges due on November 15, 1929; and that early and careful preparation be made for a generous Cash Day Offering next spring.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION

We recommend that the officers of the Conference Christian Education Union constitute the Conference Board of Christian Education.

J. P. Hendrix, Chairman,
M. W. Mumma, Secretary.

RESOLUTION

Be it resolved, that as a conference we express to Dr. William A. Weber our sincere appreciation for his very timely and inspiring addresses. We commend him for the very thorough way in which he presented the various phases of the subject discussed; and we wish him God-speed in all of his work.

F. W. May,

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON FINANCE AND STEWARDSHIP

D. T. Gregory read the annual report on Christian Stewardship. It was a strong appeal for more sacrificial service and was greatly appreciated by the group. It was adopted on motion properly supported. After considerable discussion gathered around suggestions made in the report, the Commission adopted the following recommendations:

1. That we, as a conference, heartily appreciate the action of the General Conference in reducing our Benevolence quota from $65,000 to $55,000 and that we approve the apportioning of this amount in full to the various churches of the conference.

2. That pastors and churches optimistically accept the apportionment and undertake the securing of same in full as our solemn task toward furthering the work of Christ's kingdom in our midst and abroad.

3. That an organized plan and program of study in Christian Stewardship be promoted throughout the conference as a means of realizing more fully the joy of our privilege to be workers with God in His kingdom of giving and love. For this purpose we suggest the following organization:

(1) That a committee on Christian Stewardship, composed of one minister and two laymen, be appointed and authorized to plan said program of study.

(2) That a committee in each district, and local churches, similarly composed, be selected for promoting the plan thus arranged by the above committee and for devising methods of procedure with said task.

(3) That this program of study include the gathering of vital personal experiences and testimonies from individuals who have known the blessings and benedictions of soul enrichment to be found in meeting God's method of giving, and that these be passed on to others in this program.

(4) That a period of special emphasis be given this phase of our Christian activities and life, and that in this process of study and definite prayer we seek more and more to know God's will for us in our stewardship of life. This period should be in harmony with the period designated by the denominational plan.

4. That this same plan of organization be utilized as a means for helping, where needed, in the training toward and the securing of a more adequate response to our Benevolent departments and their work.

5. That we seek to liquidate our conference debt as rapidly as possible, and thus take advantage in the fullest possible manner of the increased percentage allowed us by the General Conference from our Benevolence quota.

6. That we pledge our loyal cooperation and support to our General Church interests and to our Bishop in seeking to have the Central Area second to no other section of the Church in its support of our united tasks.

7. That we believe it would aid in Stewardship study if our Publishing House would furnish envelopes with Scriptural and Stewardship quotations similar to the homelopes printed by another concern.

FOREIGN MISSIONS REPORT

"For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, My name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place shall incense be offered unto My name." (Mal. 1:11).

The world-wide spread of Christ's Gospel is the truth announced here at the mouth of the prophet. The medium of its fulfillment is the substance of the great commission, "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye, therefore, and disciplize all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." From the day that Jesus gave commandment unto the apostles whom he had chosen to be witnesses unto him, that Gospel has been spreading, and has proved its power, in every land and race, times without number, under every conceivable condition, to deliver men from the foulest depths of sin, and from hopeless despair, and to make of them "new creatures in Christ Jesus."

But "there remainest yet much land to be possessed." For though many in all lands have come to an experiencial knowledge of Christ's saving grace, vast areas of great continents still remain wholly unevangelized, and the majority of living men have never heard of Christ, the Saviour! But His name shall be proclaimed to the Gentiles, and though this text will find its complete fulfillment in a later age than this, yet the earnest of universal redemption, the first-fruits of that fuller harvest, are to be the reward of obedience to the great commission which made the Church Christ's witnesses "unto the uttermost parts of the earth."

Inasmuch, therefore, as the unction of truth is given to us that we may communicate it to others and the fields are white already unto harvest and ultimate success is assured, let us rejoice in the blessed thought that we are offered the honor of aiding its spread among all nations, and hastening—as far as human instrumentality can hasten it—that blessed day when Christ shall be worshipped from sea to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth. All that we have, we have as stewards, and what we have, we are commanded to devote largely and liberally to the glory of God and to the good of all over whom we have any influence. No man liveth unto himself, but every man, by being a Christian, becomes necessarily and every where a missionary. The goal of our achievement should be to get every Christian to assume his individual responsibility in the matter. The means of its realization is a victorious faith, the inspiration of which is Christian propaganda plus the victories already achieved. We urge also the hearty support of the men and agencies devoted directly to this great enterprise, and recommend that we intensify our efforts and means of informing our constituency on the enlarged vision of this department of our church that the Foreign Missions Department may function in such measure as to assure greater achievements, "For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, My name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place shall incense be offered unto My name."

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON MORAL WELFARE AND SOCIAL ADVANCE

1. Race Relations

We believe in the brotherhood of man, the unity of the race, the righteousness and Christianity of equal opportunity in this brotherhood. We condemn false racial pride, prejudice, and injustice. We purpose to preach and practice, good will, justice, and righteousness in the relations of peoples of different lands and races.

2. World Peace

We believe that war is in this age unchristian, unwise, and immoral. We disapprove of compulsory military training in colleges and secondary schools, and the use of postal cancellation stamps to advertise military training camps. We rejoice in the continued success and service of the League of Nations and the World Court. We believe the United States should seek ways to help in these efforts to organize the world for peace. We glory in the ratification of the Briand-Kellogg Pact which renounces war as a national policy. We heartily commend President Hoover for his stand in favor of world peace, reduction of armaments, and for the reduction of military expense in the United States.

3. Economic Life

We believe that life and an economic order built on the ambition for profit becomes increasingly unchristian and unsafe. We believe that open honesty, justice, and service are essential elements of a safe and Christian policy in industry and business. We commend the many efforts to practice the Golden Rule in economic relations and pledge ourselves to study, teach, and live toward progress in this practice.

4. Marriage and Parenthood

We believe in the sanctity and blessedness of marriage as a life-long fellowship of mutual respect and service and love. We believe that souls should grow in unity and in spiritual stature through experiences together as husband and wife. We believe in the value of parenthood as a normal and essential part of human experience and education. We believe that a normal home life makes for religion and morality, and that religion and morality make for normal and happy home life. We believe that divorce is always a tragedy, and is the result of sin, wrong development of character, and wrong attitude toward life. We deplore and condemn the undue emphasis on sex in current entertainment and literature, the thought of marriage as a temporary sex experience and convenience and the effort to dodge the responsibility of parenthood. We commend to every church and pastor the study of this problem, the teaching to young people and young married folks of vital truth in regard to the way of successful and Christian living in this divinely planned relationship. We urge some daily practice of worship in every United Brethren home.

5. The Movies

We believe that a great many moving picture films and other theatrical entertainments are injurious especially to immature minds, because of the exhibition of crime, sex perversion, luxury and the giving of a false idea of life. We counsel our people to select with care the shows which they attend and which they allow their children to attend.

6. Cigarettes

We register an active protest against the present aggressive efforts on the part of the leading cigarette companies to inocculate the minds of American youth with the false conception that cigarette smoking is a harmless pastime.—That we brand their present campaign of advertising as a travesty upon womanhood and a direct attack upon the well being of our young people.—And that we actively seek to influence our people to refrain from the use of the cigarette and from tobacco in any form.

7. Prohibition

We believe in the value and the relative success of the Prohibition Amendment and enforcement statutes. We believe that there is far less drinking and drunkenness today in America than there would be with the open saloon or any other plan of regulating the traffic in intoxicating liquor. We believe that a large share of the press of our country have been unfair in their statements regarding prohibition. We purpose personal loyalty to the law of the land, and continued education of our people regarding the curse of alcoholism and the benefits of total abstinence; and continued effort to develop the spread of law observance.

8. Sabbath Observance

We believe that moral welfare and social advance depend upon the religious and spiritual life and thought of the individual.

The loss of religion insures decay in morality and retrogression in righteousness. The observance of the sabbath and regular Christian worship are essential to the maintaining of Christian faith and experience. We deplore the forgetting of God on the sabbath day and the use of the day for mere pleasure or gain. We shall oppose every effort for the commercial use of the day, and urge our people always to consider and keep it as the Holy day of the Lord. We do not believe that the attending of commercial amusements on the Lord's day is a proper way.

9. Personal

We believe that honesty, industry, frugality, humility, justice, forgiveness, patience, and good will are essential to successful and attractive Christian living. We believe that God through Christ gives grace and strength for such living. We prayerfully purpose to practice in all our relations these Christian virtues.

O. O. Arnold, Chairman
F. W. May, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE POLICY COMMITTEE 1929-1930

We believe that team-work as expressed in whole-hearted cooperation of the annual conferences and local churches with our denominational leaders and with the various departments and institutions authorized by General Conference is essential to the most effective work of our denomination as a whole. We believe that the faithful cooperation of pastors and local churches with our conference officers and organization is also necessary. We also believe that we can advantageously further many of the interests of the Kingdom by cooperating as a conference and as local churches with the various interdenominational organizations, as the county and state Councils of Religious Education, the county and state Christian Endeavor Unions, the Anti-Saloon League, the Lord's Day Alliance, and the Ohio Council of Churches. We further believe that the conference can aid both pastors and local churches to measure up to a higher standard of Christian service and to more united effort by suggesting programs of activities in which churches and pastors should engage. Therefore, we the ministers and lay delegates of the 120th annual session of the Miami Annual Conference hereby declare the policy of this conference to be as follows:

may be announced from time to time by our denominational leaders.

In view of the ever increasing boldness of sin and crime in our land, and the effort of the church to stem this tide of evil by a united effort in a great world-wide evangelistic campaign, and believing that only as members of the church give the Lord an opportunity to work in and through them, in accord with His will, can the church fulfill her mission. I, as a member of the.....

Church of the United Brethren in Christ, desiring to consecrate myself anew to Christ and his kingdom do hereby pledge myself to live up to these standards.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

1. Resolved, that we express our gratitude to God the giver of every good gift, for his manifold blessings during the past year; blessings too numerous to recount, but included in all the necessities of life, and the manifold spiritual blessings he has bestowed upon us as a church and as individuals.

2. Resolved, that we appreciate the return of Bishop Clippinger as our presiding officer for another quadrennium and in this resolution wish to express our thanks to him for the efficient manner in which he has presided in this session of our annual conference.

3. Resolved, that we pledge our loyalty and support to the institution of our church; especially Bonebrake Seminary, Otterbein Home, Otterbein College and the Publishing Interests of the church.

4. Resolved, inasmuch as safety to life, body, and property on the public thoroughfares of our country, in these days of rapid transit, is dependent upon sobriety and thorough sanity of all who hold license to drive, and that our boys and girls may have wholesome environment that will help to reduce to a minimum the dangers to body, soul, and mind, we pledge anew our loyal support to the Anti-Saloon League in its task of assisting the officers of the law in enforcing prohibition of the liquor traffic according to the 18th amendments provisions, and also that we commend Herbert Hoover, President of the United States, for the strong moral and official support he has been giving the great temperance movement.

5. Resolved, that we pledge our continued support to the movement to liquidate our conference indebtedness, in as short a time as it can be consistently accomplished and to this end endorse the laymen's movement, so ably presented to the conference by Mr. Roscoe H. Brane of Washington, D.C.

6. Resolved, that we express our hearty thanks to Rev. J. P. Hendrix and his loyal congregation and to the kind people of the Universalist church and Rev. Thomas Chapman, pastor, for the splendid manner in which they have entertained the annual conference.

7. Resolved, further that we full appreciate the services of Reverend Underwood and of all who assisted in the musical program.

CHARLES J. HALL,
E. C. PETRY,
E. S. WEIMER,
Committee.

RESOLUTION ON CHURCH UNION

Whereas our General Conference has placed its official sanction upon Church Union with the Reformed Church in the United States and the Evangelical Synod of America, and whereas the sentiment of the churches of this conference is strongly in favor of such union, therefore, be it resolved that the Miami Conference petition the Commission on Church Union, created by our last General Conference, to proceed as rapidly as possible with the processes of education and the necessary steps toward an early consummation of this noble enterprise.

J. H. DUTTON,
E. S. WEIMER,
CHARLES J. HALL,
O. O. ARNOLD,
Committee.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

Resolved that, whereas the Women's Missionary Association, has taken the very commendable step of offering its cooperation and assistance in the work of the local church, we, the ministers and laymen of Miami Conference, hereby express our appreciation of this attitude of the Association, and urge that each local church having a missionary society give its members an opportunity to render the proffered assistance, and that pastors of churches without such a society encourage the women of their respective churches to organize at their earliest convenience.

OTTERBEIN HOME

To all loyal United Brethren the name of Otterbein has a peculiar significance. It is a beautifully euphonious name. But the real significance is in the fact, the man whose name it bears has been so signally used of God in founding a church that has a large place in helping to mould and shape the religious life of our Nation, and has from time to time been making its contributions to national and world-wide philanthropy in its evangelical program.

One of its outstanding projects is a home for orphan children and for helpless and infirm and aged members.

The home is very appropriately named Otterbein, a synonym of the unselfish life of our Lord Jesus in providing for the needs of the poor and helpless.

In these few years of its existence, no doubt some mistakes in its management have been made, it would indeed be miraculous if such were not the case. No man or set of men are infallible and with the well-known unimpeachable integrity of its managers we must say, if mistakes have been made, they are of the head and not of the heart.

Fine things have been attained. Fine things are now in the formation and time only can reveal what splendid attainments shall be the history of this worthy institution.

Whenever and wherever I meet one or more of the Otterbein Home boys and girls they seem to reflect a noble character that is being formed by the training and environment of the home. How different for many of these boys and girls might life and its future prospects be, were it not for the blessings offered them for physical, mental, and spiritual training in their adolescent period of youth. But I must not further indulge my mind in an essay on Otterbein Home.

I wish, briefly to set before us a few facts concerning the Home with the hope that they may help in a better understanding of it and aid in its future support.

I am indebted largely to Manager Mr. A. B. Brane for the following:

There are at present in the home one hundred and fifteen children and fifty-two old people on its roll, making a total of one hundred and sixty-seven, a large family to clothe, feed, educate, and otherwise care for.

There were seven who completed the High School course and were graduated this year.

The actual dollar value of the support received from the farm is hard to state as we do not keep an accurate account of the value of the fruit and vegetables produced. We have a generous supply of fresh fruit and vegetables during the entire summer and had fresh vegetables in the cold storage room until after Christmas last year, and eight barrels of sauer kraut. The boys raised approximately one hundred pigs which were used in furnishing the table. Fifteen thousand quarts of fruits and vegetables were canned. The meat from twenty large hogs was cured for use and which furnished lard also for the home. One thousand five hundred pounds of honey, chickens, eggs and many other products of farm life are raised of which it is hard to keep accurate account but which help in the support of food supply. The cash return from the farm in addition to all this was just a little short of $10,000.00.

I have here a statement from the executive committee, subcommittee on Conference representations which pretty definitely outlines conditions and policies which I beg leave to submit as a part of this report.

"1. Its debt is pressing with almost unbearable severity, and unless something can be done to relieve the tension at this point, the Home is in a precarious situation.

"2. The annuities are not being paid promptly on account of lack of money.

"3. It will require between seventy and eighty thousand dollars a year to keep the Home running, outside of annuities and interest. This is in presence of the reduction of the size of the family, from 250 to about 180. We are not receiving many into the Home because we do not have money to pay the expense.

"4. The campaigns in the three districts must be completed if the Home is to succeed.

"5. The committee is planning a vigorous campaign on debt-paying this fall, so as to get the institution out of debt.

"6. We hope that, in the very near future, we can announce the sale of 2,000 acres of the farm to the State of Ohio, but this will still leave $350,000.00 indebtedness, some of which is very pressing, so that no let-up dare be had anywhere along the line, if this institution is to continue. As your committee, therefore, to select representatives, I am urging upon you, as well as upon myself as a representative, an earnest appeal to ministers and laymen at the annual conferences soon to begin, in favor of this deserving institution. With united action we can win; with spasmodic effort we will fail. What shall we do?" I can see but one thing to do i. e. "To press forward toward the mark."

Put Otterbein Home on a firm financial basis and thus: fulfill our high calling of God in Christ Jesus, and once again establish a great philanthropic institution in our church life to bless humanity and glorify God.

Respectfully submitted,

E. S. Weimer.

EVANGELIZATION OF FOREIGNERS

Report of the committee appointed to study the opportunities for work among the foreign groups within the bounds of the Miami Conference.

The committee finds that very little is being done by the United Brethren or any other denomination within the bounds of this conference. Practically all groups outside of the Anglo-Saxon races are neglected as far as any effort looking to their evangelization is concerned. This attitude, we believe, should be changed, and where the opportunity presents itself, or where an opportunity can be made, our churches should be more diligent in carrying the gospel to these "strangers in our midst."

Believing, as we rightly do, that Protestant Christianity presents the clearest, most logical and most effectual plan of reconciling man to God, we should recognize these groups as a field for effective evangelism.

We recommend, that our pastors and congregations, give more definite consideration to the possibilities of reaching these neglected families of other races, many of whom will welcome a more friendly attitude on the part of our Protestant church members.

While the United Brethren Church has no established congregations among the negro peoples yet, we find their spiritual interests quite well provided for by other denominations. The tendency, however, in negro communities is towards over churching by the duplication of congregations of the same or similar denominations. We would recommend that it be the sense of this conference that our representatives to the Ohio Council of Churches, urge the council to encourage and promote a closer cooperation among colored churches.

In regard to special work among foreign groups, the committee is glad to report that some effort is being made by our church. An outstanding example is that of the program being carried out among the Hungarians of Dayton, by the Euclid Avenue Church. Frank Ver, a Hungarian, who with his family are members of this church, is carrying on an effective missionary program among his own people under the supervision of the Euclid Avenue official board. Another missionary worker, a member of the High Street Church, is working among the Italians and other neglected groups His work should be encouraged by the Dayton churches.

We recommend: That the conference appoint a committee to continue the study of this problem through the coming year with the view of reporting to the next conference any specific instances where definite assistance can be given in promoting work among foreign groups.

D. T. Gregory,
H. G. Clark,

REPORT OF CONFERENCE REGISTRAR

Ministers admitted to the annual conference this year: Robert Copeland, Robert Wellbaum and Mary E. Holcomb. These ministers shall be under the supervision of the Committee on First Year's Course of Study.

Paul Arnold, Norris Cotterell, Orval Covalt, Henry Snapp, Ranald Wolfe and Ferron Troxel, are retained in the First Year's Course of Study.

EVANGELISM AND SPIRITUAL AIMS

Evangelism is fundamental. The fervency with which the Church has prosecuted her evangelistic task has determined her advance. The spirit of evangelism is of greater importance than the method. Paul's "All things to all men if by any means he might save some" is a splendid criterion for the Church of Jesus Christ. The Church must not allow herself to be drawn from her main task. There are voices many, and challenges coming from every direction calling the Church to this, that, and the other task. Many of these appeals take the form of a warning, threatening the very life of the body of Christ unless she gives herself to the cause being advocated. It is a fair and pertinent question, "What must the Church do to be saved?"

The United Brethren Church was born in the atmosphere of evangelism and has made her advance by holding to the evangelistic note. Our church has been wide awake to discover and adopt such new method as seemed Biblical, dignified, and promising. Our pastors have preached a clear and positive gospel in the face of unfavorable currents and diminishing results. Ours is not a day in which to silence the message, or slacken our evangelistic efforts. We stand on the threshold of unprecedented opportunities for the Church in this ripe field.

Therefore, we, of the Miami Conference, are resolved that we shall approach this task with warm hearts, keen minds, and humble spirits, striving to keep before our minds and to impress upon our congregations the following facts:

1. That our age is not friendly to spiritual matters and particularly so when the gospel preached conflicts with its arrogant ways of life.

2. That we are constantly tempted to give attention to administrative and mechanical matters in the local church hoping to achieve results "by might and power" whereas God says "by my spirit."

3. That sin is a reality and sin brings death. That it cannot be eradicated from the life of the individual or consequently from society by any process other than the regeneration of the heart by the Holy Spirit. Nor is there salvation in any other than the name of Jesus.

4. That the world has no way of getting the message of redeeming love and salvation from sin save through our churches and the agencies which they control, i. e. we have the gospel message, we have the pulpits, we have the Sunday School, Christian Endeavor, educational forces and the literature with which to give this message to the world which perishes without it.

5. That in the legitimate channels of our church program we have the agencies of prayer, Bible study, and witness bearing that will rekindle the fires on our church altars and in our hearts, and that will crown the Church of Christ with glorious victory.

6. That the evangelistic processes in a human soul are not completed when a person is led to accept and confess Christ as Savior. No birth is a happy birth that is not followed by growth, no growth is healthful that does not add strength, and strength is of no value until it expresses itself in service. There must be the inner witness of the spirit that "We are the sons of God," there must also be evidence in our lives that we are the servants of God.

As to our immediate program of work we recommend the following to all of our churches:

1. That we build the entire year's program about the evangelistic idea and responsibility.
2. That in each local church there shall be created a committee on evangelism.
3. That we will make every possible use of the new Bureau of Evangelism, using its literature and program as far as is possible.
4. That, since the coming year is to witness an elaborate celebration of the 1900th anniversary of the descent of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the Christian Church, and that all churches, denominations, federations of churches, etc., are preparing to participate to a greater or less extent in this celebration, we believe that each pastor will do well to observe the following:

I. THE FALL PROGRAM

1. A visitation of the entire Bible School enrollment and membership of the church one week preceding Rally Day to secure attendance.
2. The observance of Rally Day, October 6, in the Bible school and the church.
3. A survey of the entire community covered by the parish or parishes concerned.
4. A continued emphasis on church and Bible school attendance.
5. Attention given to unattached members seeking to secure their affiliation with some local church where they reside.
6. Exaltation of the Lord's Supper, through enrichment of the Communion Service, better understanding of its divine purpose, and a greater loyalty in attendance by the membership.
7. The observance of a Decision Day at Thanksgiving time or Christmas or both.
8. Creation and distribution of evangelistic literature.

9. An autumn ingathering, using every available practical method for securing evangelistic results.
10. Giving attention to the constant care and culture of the new converts.

II. FROM NEW YEAR'S TO EASTER

1. Observance of the Week of Prayer during the first week in January.
2. Emphasis placed on the value of individual and family devotions during the entire period.
3. Instruction of boys and girls for church membership.
4. The wide use of the Fellowship of Prayer.
5. By the "Home Visitation" plan, revival meetings, and pastoral evangelistic work and preaching to win every possible person to Christ and His church.
6. Observance of Passion week by—Holding noon-day theatre meetings.
   Using the devotional booklet "His Last Week."
   The observance of the Lord's Supper on Thursday or Friday as each church may desire.
   Holding an Easter Sunrise Prayer Meeting.
   Special services each night in every church.
7. An ingathering during this period that shall be worthy of every local congregation.

III. FROM EASTER TO PENTECOST

Easter in 1930 falls on April 20, Pentecost, fifty days following, comes on June 8. It is the great desire of the Commission that Pentecost and not Easter be made the climax this year. On Pentecost, June 8, the 1900th anniversary of Pentecost and the 1900th birthday of the church will be observed. The united program suggested for all our Protestant communions is as follows:

1. A church attendance crusade that shall seek to have every member of every church in America in church services somewhere each Sunday.
2. The reading of Luke and Acts simultaneously, a chapter daily. Exalting the office, work, and personality of the Holy Spirit.
3. That all the Protestant ministers of America be requested to preach on the same subjects each Sunday. (This list of subjects to be worked out by a special committee and printed by January 1).

4. That during the ten days preceding Pentecost a series of "Upper Room" union prayer meetings be held in churches, homes, shops, schools, offices, and stores, in every community throughout the nation. (A committee has been appointed to work out a list of prayer topics and provide the program. This series will be printed by January 1.)
5. That in addition to the Easter ingathering this period be used for a united community and also local church effort in soul winning by whatever method may seem most advisable so that the 1900th Pentecost may be as the first Pentecost a time of great ingathering.

IV. As to Methods, We again say that Spirit counts far more than method. We recognize and encourage any and all forms that glorify Christ and save souls.

These include:

Mass evangelism and revival meeting.

Sunday school and decision days.

Home evangelism with visitation and persus.

Special meetings under special evangelists.

Lay evangelism organized and carried forth under lay leadership and young people's crusade with Christ.

The Holy Spirit waits for open channels through which to pour himself upon the sinful world in converting and convicting power and into the church to empower her in abundant life and victorious service.

J. H. Dutton, Chairman,
Committee.
